

Verbs

Action verbs energize sentences.

Sometimes, a verb is the sentence: Run!

Verbs express action or being.

A sentence MUST contain a verb.

Verbs have tenses.

- Past tense = action that has already happened (broke).
- Present tense = action occurring right now (break).
- Future tense = action that will happen (will break).

Verbs can be active or passive.

- Active: Claire broke the window.
- Passive: The window was broken by Claire.