

US History Green Sheet Questions

1. Why don't we use a textbook?
2. What are the course goals of this class?
3. What is low-level critical thinking?
4. What is mid-level critical thinking?
5. What is high-level critical thinking?
6. How can you be most successful in class? Pick three in the green sheet that you need to improve on, and tell me how you will do it.
7. What do you think is the most important right you have in this class?
8. What should be on your desk and what should you be doing when class starts each day?
9. What will you be doing in class each day? How will you spend your 58 minutes in this classroom each day?
10. What is your definition of respect?
11. What is a risk for you in class? What is one thing that scares you about what you may be asked to do in class this year?
12. When can you see Mr. Cilker if you need help or want to talk about class?
13. How much credit will you earn on a homework assignment if you are late to class?
14. How much credit will you earn on a homework assignment if you leave your binder in your previous class and don't have it with you at the beginning of our class?
15. What should you do if we have a paper due tomorrow and your printer runs out of ink?
16. What should you do with assignments that are late due to an excused absence?
17. Will late, unexcused assignments be accepted?
18. How long do you have to make up late assignments?
19. If you are unexcused and miss a class, can you get credit for anything due that day?
20. Are you allowed to miss class to work at the student store or to set up for a dance?
21. What must you do if your family is going out of town and you will be missing school?
22. What can you do to get more B's and A's on assignments?
23. How does the Attendance Calendar work?
24. What are the stamps used for?
25. What is the penalty for cheating?
26. Why do you think people cheat?