MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

With all the strains modern life puts on us, many people now find the need for a break from their partners. This could be anything from a day spent on the riverbank to a weekend golfing with friends. Sometimes this is not easy to achieve.

Of course, some do stray further afield, becoming emotionally involved with another partner. This short-term affair, if it became public knowledge, can be quite catastrophic and ultimately, could lead to the breakdown of family life, as they knew it.

We realise when most people "stray" it is only short term and has no bearing whatsoever to their long-term goals or steady relationship. We do not wish to see their family life, home or business in turmoil for what can only be described as a "flash in the pan."

The Ace Alibi Agency has been established to help you through this moment of madness. We offer a service, which helps protect all persons involved and thus helping to ensure their long-term security.

How do we help? We provide you with a professionally tailor-made alibi.

For example - We can provide you with printed invitations to either business or pleasure events. We will fax or mail the invitation and can even mail a correspondence from most major cities in the US. We can also provide toll-free "800" number coverage of the event. If a person should try to contact you, our voice mail service will answer the call in a pre-arranged manner. e.g.- Resort, Bed and Breakfast, Trade Show, Country Club or any other business. The list is endless, you decide. Once a message is received, our staff will contact you directly and act upon your instructions instantly. We can even return calls on your behalf.

This could be - stating we have paged you or left you a message (giving you time before you return the call). We will call them back in the same pre-arranged manner. (Trade Show, Resort, etc.)
